Dean's Approval for a Graduate Student to Teach

As per the College of Graduate Studies' Graduate Student Teaching Policy, all teaching appointments of a graduate student (outside of regular Graduate Teaching Assistantships) require the written approval of the Dean of the College of Graduate Studies by the deadline posted in our database.*

*In exceptional circumstances, approval may be granted after this deadline, but prior to the start of the course, with approval of the Dean of CoGS. Student's Signature: Student Name: _____ Student Number: Student's Degree in Progress: Student's Graduate Program: _____ Date: Course to be taught: Year & Term of course offering: Credits: Please select all appropriate boxes: The student has suitable academic credentials and experience to teach the above course(s). The student is making satisfactory progress in their program. The teaching appointment will be limited to one three-credit course per term, and will not raise the student's employment commitment to the University above the level of 12 hours per week. The student has not been granted an extension to their graduate program. This appointment falls within the maximum number of courses permitted over the duration of the degree (master's students in programs not offering a higher-level credential may teach a maximum of three credits, and doctoral students a maximum of nine credits, while pursuing their degree). Doctoral students who have not advanced to candidacy are not eligible to teach. Indicate the date the student N.B. advanced to candidacy: Please review the terms and conditions of the CoGS' Graduate Student Teaching Policy before signing this form.
