

Interdisciplinary Graduate Studies Program Plan

This form must be submitted electronically to the College of Graduate Studies no later than October 15th (September admission), February 15th (January admission), or June 15th (May admission) of the student's first term of study.

Student Name:	Student #:	Date:
Degree Sought:	Theme (if applicable):

Section I – Course Plan*

- Please consult your theme website for specific requirements

Course Code	Course Name (brief)	Method or Topic Course	Credits	Semester and Year	Instructor Name

* Course plan is tentative if you are currently unable to determine coursework

** If the course is a non-IGS or a 300/400 level course, please also submit a course syllabus. If the course is not yet scheduled, please contact the course instructor for a previous year's course syllabus and provide an updated syllabus when scheduled.

Section II – Thesis (for Master's Students Only)

Select the thesis credits appropriate to your program:

12 credits

18 credits

Section III – Approval

_____	_____	_____
Supervisor's Name	Signature	Date
_____	_____	_____
Theme/IGS Coordinator's Name†	Signature	Date
_____	_____	_____
Associate Dean's Name‡	Signature	Date

†For students in the Individualized Ph.D. Option, the IGS Coordinator. For students in one of the six Themes, the respective Theme Coordinator.

‡For students in the Individualized Ph.D. Option, the Associate Dean of the Faculty in which the Supervisor resides. For students in one of the six Themes, the Associate Dean of the Faculty in which the Theme Coordinator resides.